The Rich Cat

Once upon a time there lived a cat who was a king. He was very rich and lived in a very big beautiful castle. But he was very greedy and selfish king and animals in his kingdom didn't love him. One day his servants decided that they didn't want him to be their king, so they said to him: "You are bad king and we hate you. Go away." The cat just laughed. But then they brought young Frog who was very kind and fair and always helped everyone in the city town. They said to the cat that they were going to have an elections and he would lose. The cat laughed again but this time the Frog beat him up and at the end he had to leave. He gave his crown to the Frog and was banished from the kingdom. 142

The homeless cat walked from the place to place but everybody heard the rumors about him and didn't want to take him to their houses.

At the end he understood his mistakes and became a better person. Some time later he met four animals: a Puppy, a Rabbit, a Bear and a Coon. They were travelers and didn't know anything about him. They said that he could go with them if he wanted. He agreed. They were very funny and nice to him and he liked them very much.

Very soon they became best friends. The cat was very happy with his new life. He had never been this rich.
