Summer in Ireland.

This summer I've been to Ireland in the camp where I had gone to study English. That was really nice experience which I want you to know.

The first thing I'd like to consider is local views. I hadn't thought that nature can be so picturesque and amazing. When we came to the mountains I just walked ~~way~~ with opened mouth and couldn't tell anything. When I sent photos of Ireland to my friend Nastya, she couldn't understand what I found in it. It was just a picture for her so she ~~wasn't~~ wasn't able to see this beauty of the world which was surrounding me. I often ~~me~~ remember those days and want to come back to my host family. By the way, the host family which I stayed with was great. Mr and Mrs Thomson were over sixty years old. They said that children were the most important part of their lives, so it wasn't nice to them when all of their children moved away from them. Mrs Thomson was kind with me even when I'd forgot to clean up my clothes and did that for me. It was really cute from her.

Frankly speaking, it's hard for me to talk about ~~to~~ my feelings, but you should try to understand how I felt about this travel. I think you know this feeling in your soul when you are happy with things which surround you - these emotions just fill up your heart and mind and you think that you are the happiest person in the world.
